And the beat goes on . . .

Through the past fourteen years, hundreds of students have walked the halls of New Bern High, sat in its many desks, and enjoyed the warmth of high school friendships. Each in his own way has added to the heritage of New Bern High while growing in knowledge, understanding, and maturity.

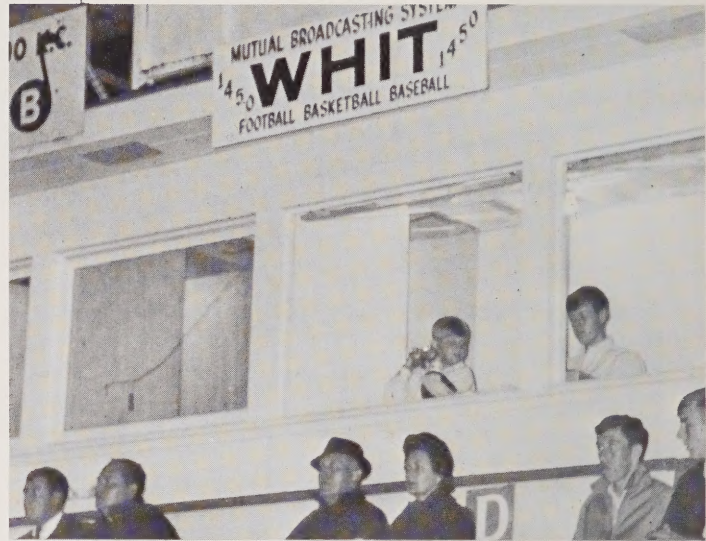

Sports plays an active part . . .

Sports involve many people both as spectators and participants. The players themselves spend countless, tiring hours coordinating their talents, playing as a team so that the student body will have something to cheer about.

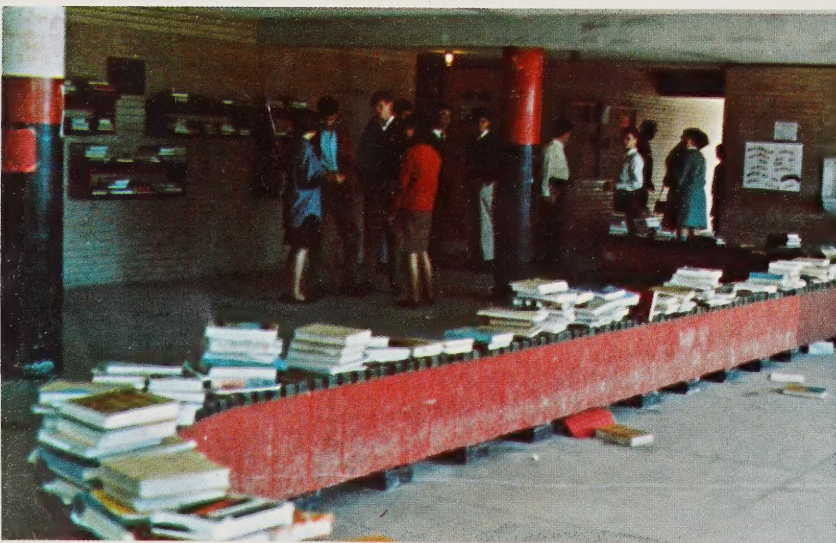

Physical fitness is of great importance to all Americans. The athletic department at New Bern High offers students a variety of sports in which they may participate. From spectator sports which contribute greatly to school spirit, to individual sports which contribute to personal spirit, the list includes something for just about everyone.

In building better citizens . . .

Student Life

includes —

There are three main facets of student life at NBHS—sports, social, and academic. Sports are for everyone and can be enjoyed by participation or speculation. Socializing is evident during the whole day. Academics is beneficial and can also be enjoyed.

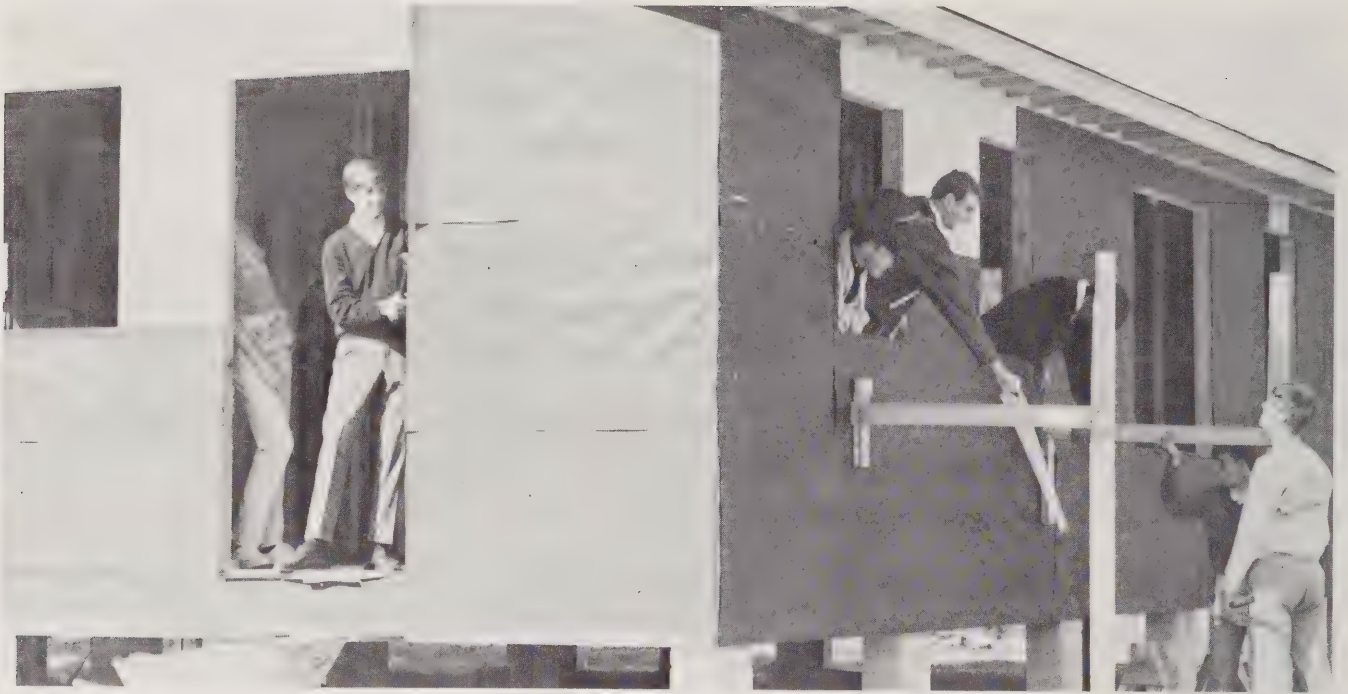

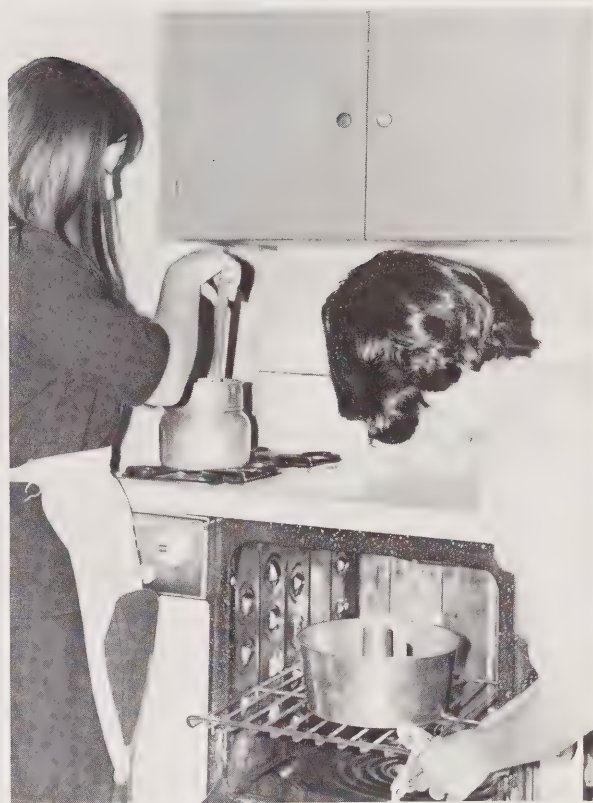

Although most schedules were already crowded with homework and school activities, NBHS students still manage to gather tidbits of time and to transform them into moments of leisure and frolic. Even though they tried to get away from the hours of study connected with school life, thoughts of other incidents and happenings always seem to linger in their minds.

Getting together is better than ever . . .

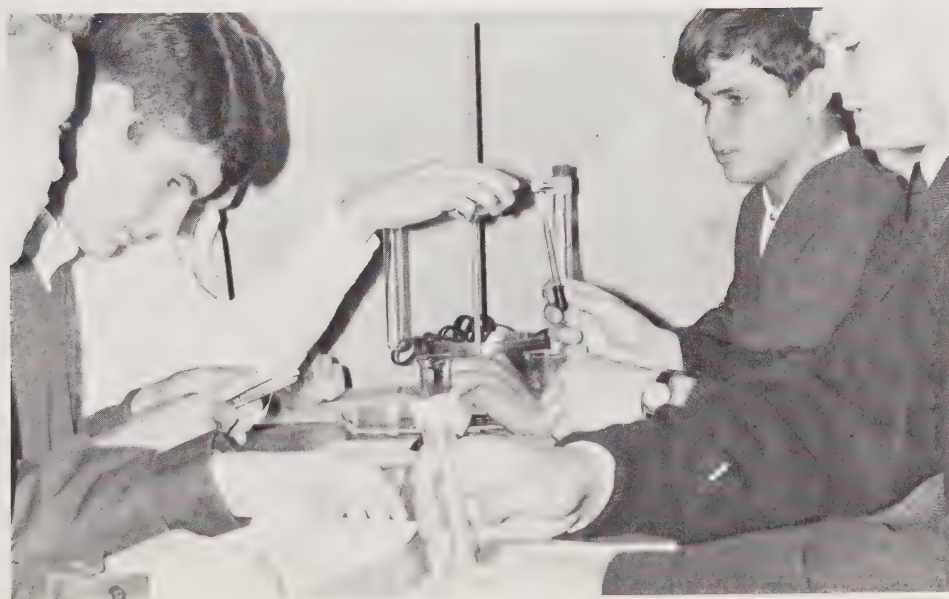

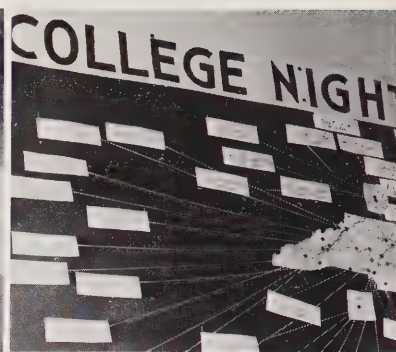

Academics – 8:30 to 3:20

Curriculum

The NEW look —

The new "in" look at New Bern High is focused on hair—smooth, sleek, long, short, straight and all one length. Girls are able to hide their perhaps shorter hair styles with falls. Boys are sporting longer, better-kept hair. Either cascading down shoulders or cropped above the ears, this year's hairstyles are destined to leave their mark.

*Dedicated to the one we love —
Mrs. Helen Smith*

Looking back upon our high school years, we will be reminded of the untiring devotion and love of this special person. Through the years she has stimulated young minds emphasizing the ideals of capable leadership, high scholarship, useful service, and strong character.

We, the staff of the 1968 BRUIN, proudly dedicate this yearbook to our own Mrs. Helen Smith.

Tribute

Due to the lack of time during the 1967 baseball year, pictures were not taken of the retiring seniors. At this time we would like to pay tribute to Jimmy Faulkenberry, Lee Reel, Mickey Nemes, and Ronnie Calhoun for their untiring years as representatives of New Bern High School. Thanks again, seniors.

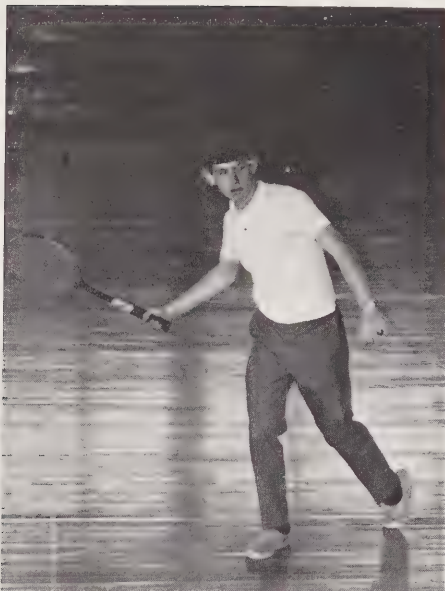

Netters Display Winning Form

We're not sure whether John Cohn and A. Cardelli are planning strategy or playing cards in this shot. It's probably cards.

(At right) Do these two little children know each other, or does David Huff always laugh when he's getting smashed with a racket?

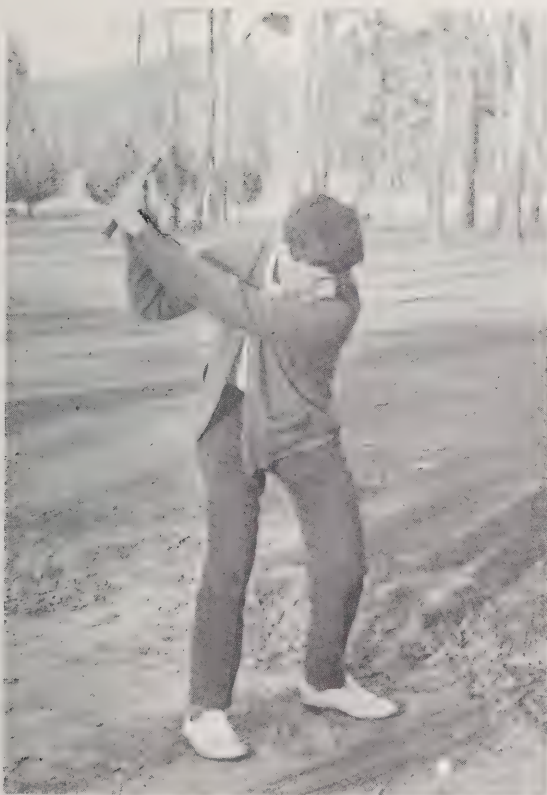

John Cohn displays winning forehand form.

Mark Alligood and George Bancroft show that practice makes perfect.

Due to a lack of both time and space, we were not able to include either a track section or a golf section in this annual. In other words, all the cats who managed to get their pictures on this page are privileged characters.

Know who this fine young man is? It's Chuck—Golfer of the Year—Tyson, blasting out of his natural habitat, a sandtrap.

Seniors may recall former years as they walk on stage graduation night. Visions of happy experiences, dim remembrances of sad ones, first impressions of high school, and plans for the future, are the climactic peak of four never-to-be-forgotten years.

Everyday happenings now become more significant to a senior as he prepares to graduate. Yet, seniors breathe sighs of relief as final decisions for college formulate, SAT scores return, and the last exam is in. Graduation invitations are finally addressed and mailed as that June night draws near. This senior year has meant many things to different people. For some, it was the last encounter with formal education; for others, 1969 is the threshold to higher learning and wider opportunities.

"For yeasterday is but a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision. But today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and tomorrow a vision of hope."
